Presenters:

Community Youth Courts

CYC is a non-profit organization providing an alternate justice program to youth who commit non-felony offenses. The mission at CYC is to support and educate the at-risk youth with resources to assist them in reaching his or her full potential and have a better quality of life.

Napa Model SARB

A presentation aimed at the function and process of Napa’s School Attendance Review Board. Focus will be on the make-up and procedures that are used to effectively intervene with student truancy. Members will discuss how through collaboration with the community organizations and agencies they are able to support students and families towards more positive attendance and active engagement in school.

Dora J. Dome – “The Tragedy of “Non-ness”: How Language Damages Our Quest to Educate Students with diverse Cultural Backgrounds”

Exclusionary language is embedded in the English language and undermines the ability of schools to educate students with diverse cultural backgrounds. In this training, participants will discuss the forms of exclusionary language and messages that are prevalent in educational settings and discuss appropriate personal and professional responses to its use.

SI&A: “Achievement Begins with Attendance”

Attendance success stories as well as a Legislative Update from Barrett Snider and Erin Evans-Fudem.
